Questionnaire

The Appalachian Community Fund seeks to represent the central Appalachian region and its people in our board makeup. We seek to be inclusive of race, gender, sexual orientation, ability, age, and economic status. We also seek persons who understand and have a commitment to the movement for social change, as well as help us elevate our mission. In that spirit, please provide a concise narrative below detailing how your specific skills and unique life experience speaks to ACF's mission.

1. Please list current and/or prior non-profit board (or other leadership) experience [include organization, dates, & your role]:
 2. What issues are you interested in or have knowledge of (for example: environment, domestic violence, welfare reform, community organizing, anti-racism, economic development, youth work, etc.)?
 3. What is your understanding of the mission and role of ACF?
 4. Will you be willing to help with fundraising, grant making, organizational matters, and public relations for ACF?
 5. Will you be willing to participate in four Board meetings a year and serve on a committee?
 6. If you can in a few short sentences, please tell us a little of your background and why you are interested in being on the board of the Appalachian Community Fund.
